

National coach for Surf Life Saving Denmark

The section of Surf Life Saving in Danish Swimming Federation is looking for a national coach for the Danish National Team in competitive Surf Life Saving.

Surf Life Saving is a sport in great development at both National and International level where the elite of Denmark has tradition to deliver strong results. The Danish National Team consists of five men and five women that are being selected for International Championships such as European and World Championships.

The position as National coach for the Danish National Team in Surf Life Saving is an exciting and challenging position which covers several aspects so therefore we're looking for someone who possesses the ability to:

- Maintain the organizational overview of National and International championships
- Organize and execute training sessions during the season
- Select the team for International championships
- Technical skills and experience in lifesaving sport is an advantage but not a requirement

If this seems challenging and attractive for you, we will offer:

- International trips
- Personal and professional development while working with a group of ambitious athletes
- Crucial factor to develop the lifesaving sport in Denmark

There is a small fixed annual fee, as well as reimbursement for training sessions, meetings, etc.

If you find the position interesting and challenging you are very welcome to send us an application. If you should have any further questions you are more than welcome to contact the Danish Lifesaving Section via Anders Elbeck, ace@svoem.dk or +45 29 16 04 23

We look forward to hear from you.
